

I was astonished to hear that Sinclair Broadcasting group was ordering their affiliate stations to air a highly partisan television show just days before the presidential election. I am certainly not against freedom of expression, but the fact that this is a one-sided view being aired on public airwaves with no counterpoint is outrageous and abuse of Sinclairs license. I sincerely hope the FCC does not let this stand and will prevent this abuse from taking place.

Sincerely,

Josh Remis